

THE REVEREND DAVID SIMS

Deacon

The Rev. David Sims, Deacon, grew up in the Dallas, TX area and is a graduate of the University of North Texas. He earned his master's degree and completed postgraduate studies at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. After dedicating 30 years to serving as a mental health counselor in public education in Arkansas, David retired. Before his ordination to the diaconate, David completed the Education for Ministry (EfM) program and served as the EfM coordinator for the Diocese of Arkansas for 15 years. He also completed the Iona Initiative, a three-year program from the Seminary of the Southwest in Austin, TX in preparation for his ordination in 2019. He and his partner, Terry Cook, reside in Palm Springs.